Overview

Why is Pakistan a big market for solar energy?

Pakistan has quickly become one of the world's biggest markets for solar energy. This solar boom has been driven in large part by consumers who are fed up with sky-high electricity costs. The White House is one step closer to defunding public radio.

Did Pakistan import more solar panels in 2024?

And yet, by the end of 2024, Pakistan imported more solar panels than almost any other nation in the world. The South Asian country, facing economic challenges and high energy poverty, is witnessing one of the most unexpected clean energy success stories of the decade.

Is solar a viable energy solution in Pakistan?

Falling equipment prices, combined with volatile local fuel costs and persistent power shortages, have made solar one of the most economically viable energy solutions in Pakistan today. Despite this, significant gaps remain in how the transition is being managed.

Should Pakistan be given full credit for solar energy boom?

An official from Pakistan's Power Division told CNN the government "has to be given full credit" for this boom, citing programs including zero tax on solar panels and a net metering system, which allows people to send excess solar energy to the grid and currently accounts for about 4 gigawatts .

Why did Pakistan adopt solar power?

Photo by Hexzain / Shutterstock. Solar adoption in Pakistan resulted from a "perfect storm" of supply and demand. On the demand side, an unprecedented hike in electricity tariffs — up 155% in just three years — rendered grid power unaffordable for many people and businesses.

Does Pakistan have a solar system?

Pakistan's story is unique, said Mustafa Amjad, program director at Renewables First, an energy think tank based in Islamabad. Solar has been adopted at mass scale in countries including Vietnam and South Africa, "but none have had the speed and scale that Pakistan has had," he told CNN.
