Ever dream of bringing the outdoors inside without dealing with bugs, weather, or pollen?

That's the magic of a well-crafted sunroom. Imagine starting your mornings bathed in golden sunlight while sipping coffee, or hosting friends under a cozy glass ceiling during winter snowfall. Sunrooms aren't. How much does a sunroom cost?

The average cost of a sunroom per foot runs from $80 to $400, according to Forbes, and it varies depending on if it's a three-season or four-season room. Typically, sunrooms vary in size from 10 by 20 feet to 16 by 24 feet. Q. What kind of windows are best for sunroom?

You can pick the best sunroom windows based on how you plan to use the space.

Which sunroom company is right for You?

For those craving the most sunlight, consider Global Solarium. The West Coast company will help you bring the best of the outdoors indoors (minus the bugs) and offers in-home consultations to design the right sunroom for your space.

What are the best sunroom kits?

The kits cost less than traditional sunrooms and are great for those not looking to spend as much or those not looking to add on to their home permanently. Fifthroom offers a variety of sizes and styles, including octagon, rectangular, and oval-shaped sunrooms. 6. Conservatory Craftsman.

Are sunrooms a good investment?

Sunrooms don't have the high rate of return as other spaces in your home, such as bathroom remodels and kitchen renovations. Adding a sunroom will get you about a 49 percent return on your investment, according to HomeAdvisor, which is about half of what you will likely pay for adding the sunroom.

Who makes the best sunroom & patio covers?

4. Four Seasons Don't let the company name fool you—Four Seasons Sunrooms and Widows not only offers sunrooms you can enjoy year round, but also three-season sunrooms and patio covers. The company is one of the largest manufacturers of its kind and works with highly trained independently owned and operated dealers.

Can you build your own sunroom?

You can even find build-your-own sunroom kits if you're especially handy. While three-season sunrooms are built using an existing roof or porch cover onto an existing deck or patio, if you're looking to use your sunroom all year, you'll need an HVAC system, insulation, and some foundation work.
